13 Before me are Bacon's motion for addresses, class action, and copies (ECF No. 35) and motion
14 for docket sheets and for copies (ECF No. 38). Bacon filed a notice of appeal with the Ninth Circuit Court 15 of Appeals on December 27, 2021. (ECF No. 36). "The filing of a notice of appeal is an event of 16 jurisdictional significance—it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of 17 its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal." Griggs v. Provident Consumer Disc. Co., 18 459 U.S. 56, 58, 103 S. Ct. 400, 74 L.Ed.2d 225 (1982); see also Dayton Indep. Sch. Dist. v. U.S. Mineral
19 Prods. Co., 906 F.2d 1059, 1063 (5th Cir. 1990) ("When one aspect of a case is before the appellate court
20 on interlocutory review, the district court is divested of jurisdiction over that aspect of the case. A district 21 court does not have the power to alter the status of the case as it rests before the Court of Appeals.") The 22 district court does not regain jurisdiction over those issues until the court of appeals issues its mandate.
23 Id. After the Ninth Circuit rules on the pending appeal, Bacon may seek leave to file these motions.
